Work Begins On New Shopping Center

Faulkner Construction Company was the low bidder on construction of a long hoped for shopping center in Elba. The final site selected was a 12.2 acre lot directly across from the Legion Field Recreation Complex on the Elba-Troy

Highway. The property was purchased from the Brooks estate and clearing and levelopment director of Citco, Inc., of Dothan also is planning development of five acres across from the present construction and joining the about one million dollars, according to board for Phase 2 of the development that could bring several other major that could bring several other major businesses to the shopping complex.

Presently scheduled for the February opening is a 30,000 square foot TG & Y and a 9800 square foot Harco Drugs, both newcomers to Elba plus a Piggly Wiggly Supermarket of 15,756, which is considerably larger than the existing Piggly Wiggly. These plus 7,000 square feet of miscellaneous shops still available for leasing will make up the Phase 1 of the project and will be complete by February. About 40 or 50 additional jobs will be available in or 50 additional jobs will be available in these locations also. There will be approximately 325 parking spaces in the center, said John Milner, also a partner in Citco, and in charge of engineering, design, and Milner said he immediately contacted the Army Corp of Engineers in Mobile after the property was purchased to insure that they were out of chased to insure that they were out of flood problems and in compliance with all regulations. He also contacted the National Flood Insurance Rating Bureau in Atlanta to comply with their guidelines to get the best insurance. Milner said the 100 year flood level is four feet below the floor of the proposed buildings, and this is several feet higher than needed to qualify for the best insurance ratings.

Johnny Sims, age 26, a resident of the Ino Community, was arrested on Friday, July 18, 1980, and charged with possession of marijuana after members of the Coffee County Sheriff's Dept. Confiscated 282 marijuana plants that were growing on Sims' property.

The news out of Montgomery is that Gov. Fob James' wife, Bobbye, has donated a thousand dollars to a Republican candidate for Congress. Now, Fob is a former Republican himself, and there ain't nothing wrong with his wife remaining a Republican. . . . ye ole editor doesn't have that kind of money to donate to anyone, but have been known to occasionally vote for a Republican candidate, when we think the Republican is better than the Democratic candidate.

The fishing at the Elba dam on Pea River was reportedly great on Thursday and Friday of last week. With the opening of the raceway gates to lower the water around the dam, a bunch of fish were caught by enterprising fishermen. We heard one report of a fisherman with a dip net going to the little pockets of water in the sandstone and filling up a sack. We saw several pole fishermen that were beaming from ear to ear after their great success with catfish and bream on worms. Also a few bass fishermen caught the limit on artificial lures.

Well, the Olympic games in Moscow are underway and the Russians are trying to pump up the world with their greatness each time they win another gold medal. However, they fail to mention that the U.S., West Germany and Japan are usually field medal winners, but ain't there this year.

EXPERIENCE COUNTS

I have been a City Councilman for the last four years, and I feel this gives me a good insight into the running of City business on a monthly, weekly and daily basis.

I have also managed my store for the last twenty years, since my father's death. I think this shows I have a very vested interest in the growth and development of Elba.

Elba is my home - it always has been, and I intend to live here and raise my family here.

I can only promise two things to the citizens of Elba -- I will always do my very best, and will be honest and fair to all people concerned.

> I WILL APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE FOR MAYOR ON JULY 29. THANK YOU

The Area 1, District 7, Babe Ruth Baseball Tournament was held in Greenville last week, with the All-Star team from Elba being ousted after losing two straight games. Elba lost to An-dalusia 16-7 and Greenville 13-12 in the double-elimina tion event, which was eventually won by Opp. In the loss to Andalusia, Elba fell behind in the opening innings and could never catch-up. Andy Hardwick pitched a good game for the All-Stars, but had little backing from his team as countless errors led to most of Andalusia's runs. Tim Williamson had a single, double and triple to lead 10:43 a.m. - Woman caller Elba, while Ken Yelverton added 2 hits. In the loss to Greenville Elba blew a 12-5 lead in the seventh-inning and lost 13-12 in the eighth-inning. The locals were breezing along going into the seventh, but three Elba pitchers walked 6 batters, hit 3 and gave-up 2 hits to let Greenville tie the game. Greenville's batters just stood and watched in the eighth-inning as Elba's pitcher walked four straight Reese and Caroline St. men to give away the game! Elba got 10 hits in the game, and 3 by Erwin Gunnells, who batted-in 5 runs. The Elba pitchers gave up only 5 hits, but issued 17 walks in 11:2 o.m. - Male called
